Lettering with glass mosaic

Instructions No. 2977

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 8 Hours

Personalise your front door with this beautiful decorative idea. This welcome sign looks incredibly inviting and friendly, a real eye-catcher!

First, the lettering is partially painted with Chalky Outdoor Color.

Once dry, glue the glass mosaic stones in the shape of flowers onto the letters. You can then glue the crackle mosaic around the flowers as desired. You can use our example image as a guide here.
Tip: To get straight edges, you can mask off the lettering with masking tape

As soon as this has dried, mix a little joint filler with water to make a creamy mixture. Use a brush to apply the mixture to the joints and spread it evenly. remove any excess joint filler from the mosaic tiles with a damp sponge.

Once the joint filler has dried, the tiles must be wiped or polished with a dry cloth. Finally, the entire surface should be sprayed with permanent spray to protect it. This must be allowed to dry sufficiently and completely ribbon finally, a string is tied to the hangers on the back of the lettering.
