trendy Keilrahmen im Fabrik-Stil

Instructions No. 391

The so-called factory style stands out above all for its extremely clear forms and its matter-of-fact Basic Colours . It has its origin in old industrial buildings. This trendy Stretched Canvas brings the big metropolises directly to your home. The napkin motives fit perfectly on the small Stretched Canvas and get a great effect by the micro LED light chain.

It's as simple as that

Mix Acrylic paint Anthracite the black and white and use it as a Stretched Canvas primer. Allow to dry. The Stencil spray with spray adhesive "Non-Permanent 404", position Stretched Canvas it on the wire and paint it firmly. Stencil Acrylic paint on the motifs with black and white, remove and wash off Stencil immediately, then reposition Stick Stretched Canvas the different napkin motives flat on the small ones. Tip: Spray the Napkins only with spray adhesive "Non-Permanent 404", so you can position them without wrinkles and remove them again if necessary. If they are Napkins correct, they are sealed with Napkin varnish
After drying, stick Masking Tape around the small Stretched Canvas ones. Cut a hole for threading the Micro-LED light chain into the big one Stretched Canvas and thread the whole copper wire to the front. Work the lights into the motifs of the small Stretched Canvas ones from behind, pierce small holes with scissors at prominent points and fix the lights with hot glue. Important: Start with the last little light on the wire, so you have more freedom of movement. Finally, fix the small Stretched Canvas ones with hot glue on the big one.
